Gameplay Mechanics

The World: The map is designed as a series of interconnected areas and floors, there exist 5 Floors, each floor will have one main boss, 3 Mini bosses, and one commercial area

How to Win: The player "wins" by defeating the final boss and knowing what (y/n) wants to know

How to Lose: The player "loses" if their soul essence bar reaches zero after taking too many hits or making incorrect decisions.

Limitations:

- You have a backpack with some spaces to save items, when the backpack is full you can't add more because that will be your Weight limit
- you can only use 2 bosses' fragments
- if you die you will lose your "SK" if you kill the enemy who killed you, you will have your "SK" back
- if you die you lose your "SK" if you die again and you did not recover your "SK" back, your "SK" will be permanently lost

Scoring: the scoring system "SK" is like a coin you can use to buy items in the towns, buy information in the map will be 5 "Estatuas", each "Estatua" will be empty, you will need 50 "SK" to fill it out, when you fill it out will give you a fragment of amulet, each fragment will increase your Hp.

normal enemy = 3 SK

big enemy = 5 SK

Bosses= 40 SK

Max "SK" Possible = 450

NPC:

Andy: the first one you meet, and he will introduce you in the world

Merchant: will appear in some part of the map to buy you items

The Crazy Old Soul: Just the most old soul, is crazy and allway is talking about some "enchantment" called "verdammt"

Weapon: your weapon and the only one you should trust
